Adjective Activity

*Below is an insert from the story with the adjectives taken out. Read the paragraph and then follow the directions.

“The menu varied. By the time they woke up in the morning, breakfast was coming down. After a shower of juice, clouds of egg moved in followed by pieces of toast. Butter and jelly sprinkled down for the toast. And most of the time it rained milk afterwards.”

Directions #1: Re-read the paragraph and draw what you hear based on the description given. Do not draw what you think the picture should look like, but draw it according to how it is being described.

Directions #2: Using the adjective word list you brainstormed, re-write the paragraph by adding descriptive adjectives to make it more interesting and exciting for the reader.

Directions #3: Now, re-draw your paragraph based on the description you gave in the rewritten paragraph. Make sure you draw the specific details/adjectives you added. Look at how much of a difference adding descriptive adjectives can change a story!
