

Alexis and Grandma visit each night.
From their computers, email they write.

Emily and her family visit Grandma when they can.

They all ride to Grandma's in their new van.

Grandma and Audrey visit
without fail.

They send each other letters
through the mail.

Carson's grandma
loves to talk,

So they visit
while they walk.

Visiting with Grandma
always brings smiles,

Whether she's right next door,
or across many miles.
