

Jeopardy Review

Business	Railroads	Steel Industry	Oil Industry	Government	Labor	Inventions
100 Points	100 Points	100 Points	100 Points	100 Points	100 Points	100 Points
200 Points	200 Points	200 Points	200 Points	200 Points	200 Points	200 Points
300 Points	300 Points	300 Points	300 Points	300 Points	300 Points	300 Points
400 Points	400 Points	400 Points	400 Points	400 Points	400 Points	400 Points
500 Points	500 Points	500 Points			500 Points	500 Points

Business	Railroads	Steel Industry	Oil Industry	Government During the Period	Labor	Inventions
100 Points The industries that attempted to monopolize or consolidate their products to increase profits often at the expense of their workers, consumers, and competition.	100 Points ...Gave the railroad companies land to use for the railroad right of ways.	100 Points The process that allowed steel making to be profitable.	100 Points Kerosene	100 Points Interstate Commerce Commission	100 Points These were often put down by strikebreakers and led to violence.	100 Points It replaced less efficient lighting systems like gaslights.
200 Points A business that is owned by individual stockholders who share in its profits.	200 Points Steel rail	200 Points The role that steel played in the Industrial Revolution	200 Points The invention that helped make the oil industry "Big Business."	200 Points This act was used to curb the power of labor unions.	200 Points Job protection, wage protection, and unemployment compensation	200 Points It provided a new source of energy for individuals and businesses.
300 Points This type of business exerts complete control over a product or service, so that competition is eliminated.	300 Points One by-product of the development of the railroads	300 Points The first billion dollar corporation in the United States	300 Points The individual that controlled the early oil industry	300 Points The Supreme Court favored these types of businesses in the late nineteenth century through the way it interpreted the Constitution.	300 Points The most effective and most enduring labor union of the post-Civil War period.	300 Points This invention allowed areas of the United States to be opened up for farming.
400 Points This business situation allows products to be sold at the lowest possible price.	400 Points Standard gauge tracks	400 Points Placing officers on the boards of companies to gain control	400 Points Policy of rule or ruin	400 Points Almost took over the United States government.	400 Points These were where most of the jobs were found during the industrial revolution?	400 Points It allowed actual words to be transmitted over lines rather than just a code.
500 Points Companies conspiring together to divide up business in an area to increase profits	500 Points Created a market for raw materials and manufactured goods	500 Points The ability to control every aspect of steel production			500 Points The people that filled many of the factory jobs besides Americans.	500 Points This process tremendously increased the amount of items produced in factories.

Business	Railroads	Steel Industry	Oil Industry	Government	Labor	Inventions
100 Points What is "Big Business?"	100 Points What is the U.S. Government?	100 Points What is the Bessimer process?	100 Points What was the first major product of the oil industry?	100 Points What was the first government agency used to control "Big Business?"	100 Points What was a labor strike?	100 Points What is an electric light?
200 Points What is a corporation?	200 Points What is the material that allowed the railroads to expand?	200 Points What was the most important material of the Industrial Revolution?	200 Points What was the internal combustion engine?	200 Points What was the Sherman Anti-Trust Act?	200 Points What were workers asking for during this period?	200 Points What is an electric dynamo or generator?
300 Points What is a monopoly?	300 Points What was the movement of people to cities?	300 Points What was the United States Steel Company?	300 Points Who was John D. Rockefeller?	300 Points What were corporations?	300 Points What was the American Federation of Labor?	300 Points What is the steel plow?
400 Points What is business competition?	400 Points What was the item that allowed railroads to form a system?	400 Points What is an interlocking dictorate?	400 Points What was a method used by Rockefeller to eliminate competition?	400 Points What is Big Business or Industry?	400 Points What were cities?	400 Points What is the telephone?
500 Points What is a business "pool?"	500 Points What is one benefit of the railroad system?	500 Points What is vertical integration?			500 Points What were foreign immigrants?	500 Points What is the assembly line?