

Homemade Soda

Read the following sentences. Combine the simple sentences into compound sentences. Use a conjunction or semicolon.

1. You can give up and buy your cola at Wal-Mart. You can try to make it on your own.
2. Legend has it that only three people in the world know the recipe for the syrup used in Coca-Cola. All any cola bottler would tell us is that the flavoring comes from the extract of the coca plant and the kola nut.
3. One of the sources said that the amount of extract from the coca plant and kola nut is miniscule. It is actually a concoction suspected of containing cinnamon, vanilla, lime juice, and sugar.
4. Coca-Cola is by far the most popular and recognized brand of soft drink. Each manufacturer has a formula for its particular brand of cola syrup that is a guarded secret.

Now, organize the statements. Reread the statements and number them in the corrected order.
