

WAR VETERAN INTERVIEW

Interview a person who was in a war. Ask specific questions about the time period. You will be required to take notes during the interview, to either audiotape or videotape the person who you are interviewing, with his or her permission, of course. Write a summary from the notes taken during the interview. Proofread paper for spelling and grammar errors. Share summary with the class. Share a few highlights of the audiotape or videotape.

Possible Questions for Interview:

1. Who is the speaker?
2. What was his unit in the service?
3. What was his or her position in the war?
4. What was the time period of this war?
5. Where was the speaker stationed in the war?
6. How did the speaker feel about his position in the war?
7. How did the speaker feel about the war?
8. Relate at least two events of the war or events that were connected with the war.
