

VOCABULARY MAPPING FOR PREPARATION STRATEGIES

VOCABULARY WORDS FOR PREPARATION

AS TAKEN FROM THE ORAL PRESENTATION RUBRIC and new words added during the lesson

PREPARATION:

- Investigation (root word is investigate; study by close examination, the act of)
- Recording (root word is record; set down in writing; the state or fact of being recorded)
- Webbing (an intricate structure suggestive of something woven, networked together)
- Drafting (root word draft; a preliminary sketch, outline or version; the state/fact of being drafted)
- Revision (root word revise; to look over again to correct or improve; an act of revising)
- Self-reflect (to examine one's own mind or content; examination of one's own thought process)
- Fact (the quality of being actual; piece of information presented as having objective reality)
- Opinion (a view, judgement, or appraisal formed in the mind about a particular matter)
- Emotional appeal (appealing to or arousing emotion, or the feelings)

PERSONAL RESPONSE

Directions

1. Write the name of the event on the line in the banner.
2. In the box at left below, write the 'Action' that occurred.
3. In the box at right below, write the 'Reaction' that the opposition had.
4. In the writing space provided, write your feelings, opinions, and thoughts about the event.

MOUNTAINS TO CLIMB

ACTION

REACTION