

Expository Writing Prewrite

What type simple machine is it?

What are you calling your machine?

Describe your machine.
Tell what it looks like. Tell what it is made out of. Tell how you made it.

How will your machine affect your principal's health or lifestyle?
Why would your machine be used? Tell how to use it.

Where did you find your information?
Tell about books you used. Tell about people you talked to about your machine.
Tell about other places you got information like from the computer program, or the Internet, or posters.