

When the project is complete, collect the student work in book form and use the following rubric to assess the process used to communicate their ideas based on research, environment, personal experience, observation, or imagination.

Commendable

Completes the story and the illustrations in the techniques studied.

The story has a logical sequence and the illustrations reflect story line.

The story has excellent subject matter and exhibits innovative techniques of illustration.

Acceptable

Most of the story is complete in illustrations in the techniques studied.

Story is complete but has grammatical errors and errors in illustrations.

The story is complete but subject matter and illustrations need improving

See Teacher

The story is incomplete. Illustrations are incomplete.

The story is not in a logical sequence as well as illustrations.

The story is incomplete and not in logical sequence. Illustrations do not represent story.