

NAME _____

DATE _____

PERIOD _____

Assessment Rubric

	Commendable	Acceptable	Acceptable with Change	Teacher suggestions for change
Application of various symbols and ideas within the work of art	Symbolism is used and is appropriate to the idea being presented. A variety of symbols such as color, placement, and object choice is used.	Most or some symbolism is used and appropriate to idea. A limited variety of symbols is used.	Symbolism used is not appropriate to the idea being presented. No variety of symbols is used.
Areas of self-identity portrayed are effectively communicated.	All aspects of self portrayed are easily interpreted and recognizable. Message communicated is easily read.	Many or some aspects being communicated are able to be interpreted.	Communication in majority of piece is not able to be determined. Communication is weak.
Objects and information are managed and arranged to show importance and/or degree to which they exemplify their creator.	Objects chosen are representative of the individual or aspects of their life. Chosen objects are arranged within the composition with thought to importance to the individual.	Most objects represent aspects of the individual's life. The objects are arranged with some thought to matters of importance to the individual.	Objects chosen are not relevant to representing aspects of the individual's life. Little thought was given to placement and arrangement of objects in the composition.
Written component describes and explains the visual creation.	All aspects of the visual creation are addressed within the writing. The piece is well explained and easily understood.	Most of the visual creation is addressed within the writing. The piece is explained with some areas still questionable as to their meaning.	Little to none of the visual piece is addressed. Little to no explanation is provided in the writing.

Grab & Run

Imagine that you have awoken in the middle of the night to find your home on fire. Your family has all gotten out safely, and you only have time to save 10 items of importance to you. List below the ten items you would save and remove from the burning home.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____
- 6 _____
- 7 _____
- 8 _____
- 9 _____
- 10 _____

Now, imagine that on your way out of the house, you trip and fall, dropping everything you were carrying. The fire has now worsened and is getting close. You only have time to pick up 5 of those 10 items of importance. Which 5 would you grab? Explain briefly why these items are of importance to you.

- 1 _____

- 2 _____

- 3 _____

- 4 _____

- 5 _____
