

Multiple Choice Pre Test

- ___1. The Kansas-Nebraska Act overruled the: (A) Compromise of 1850 (B) Missouri Compromise (C) Dred Scott Decision (D) Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo
- ___2. The territory that became the battle ground over the issue of slavery in the 1850's was: (A) Nebraska (B) Minnesota (C) Kansas (D) Missouri
- ___3. The novel Uncle Tom's Cabin was written by: (A) Stephen Douglas (B) Harriet Beecher Stowe (C) Emily Dickinson (D) Harriet Tubman
- ___4. All of the following were candidates in the election of 1860 EXCEPT:
(A) Abraham Lincoln (B) Stephen Douglas (C) John Bell (D) Henry Ward Beecher
- ___5. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court who handed down the ruling in the Dred Scott case was: (A) Roger B. Taney (B) John Jay (C) John Marshall (D) William H. Rehnquist
- ___6. The attack at Harper's Ferry took place in the present state of : (A) North Carolina (B) Virginia (C) West Virginia (D) Ohio
- ___7. The political party that was organized in 1854 was: (A) the Democratic Party (B) the Whig Party (C) the Free Soil Party (D) the Republican Party
8. State one conclusion reached by the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case?
9. What is the meaning of popular sovereignty?
10. Describe three events that resulted in tension between the North and South during the 1850's?

Answer Key

1. b 2. c 3. b 4. d 5. c 6. a 7. c.

8. Dred Scott was not a citizen and could not sue or be sued in the federal courts.

Dred Scott stay in free territory had no impact on the case.

The Missouri Compromise was unconstitutional.

9. Popular sovereignty was the policy of allowing the voters in a territory to decide whether or not to allow slavery.

10. A sample answer may look like the following:

There were several events that caused tension between the North and South. The book Uncle Tom's Cabin led to a feeling of distrust by many Southerners. They felt the South and the institution of slavery had been portrayed in a negative manner. The Dred Scott case was applauded by the South since territories could decide whether or not to ban slavery. The North did not approve of the court decision since slavery could expand to new territories. Finally, John Brown's raid was viewed by Southerners as an individual who called for the rebellion of slaves. In addition, the fact that Brown was held as a hero by Northerners helped to enrage Southerners.

Multiple Choice Post Test

- ___1. The Kansas-Nebraska Act overruled the: (A) Compromise of 1850 (B) Missouri Compromise (C) Dred Scott Decision (D) Treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo
- ___2. The territory that became the battle ground over the issue of slavery in the 1850's was: (A) Nebraska (B) Minnesota (C) Kansas (D) Missouri
- ___3. The novel Uncle Tom's Cabin was written by: (A) Stephen Douglas (B) Harriet Beecher Stowe (C) Emily Dickinson (D) Harriet Tubman
- ___4. All of the following were candidates in the election of 1860 EXCEPT:
(A) Abraham Lincoln (B) Stephen Douglas (C) John Bell (D) Henry Ward Beecher
- ___5. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court who handed down the ruling in the Dred Scott case was: (A) Roger B. Taney (B) John Jay (C) John Marshall (D) William H. Rehnquist
- ___6. The attack at Harper's Ferry took place in the present state of : (A) North Carolina (B) Virginia (C) West Virginia (D) Ohio
- ___7. The political party that was organized in 1854 was: (A) the Democratic Party (B) the Whig Party (C) the Free Soil Party (D) the Republican Party
8. State one conclusion reached by the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case?
9. What is the meaning of popular sovereignty?
10. Describe three events that resulted in tension between the North and South during the 1850's?

Answer Key

1. b 2. c 3. b 4. d 5. c 6. a 7. c.

8. Dred Scott was not a citizen and could not sue or be sued in the federal courts.

Dred Scott stay in free territory had no impact on the case.

The Missouri Compromise was unconstitutional.

9. Popular sovereignty was the policy of allowing the voters in a territory to decide whether or not to allow slavery.

10. A sample answer may look like the following:

There were several events that caused tension between the North and South. The book Uncle Tom's Cabin led to a feeling of distrust by many Southerners. They felt the South and the institution of slavery had been portrayed in a negative manner. The Dred Scott case was applauded by the South since territories could decide whether or not to ban slavery. The North did not approve of the court decision since slavery could expand to new territories. Finally, John Brown's raid was viewed by Southerners as an individual who called for the rebellion of slaves. In addition, the fact that Brown was held as a hero by Northerners helped to enrage Southerners.

Concept Map for Slavery in the United States

