

What is your knowledge of the composition of light?

1. Draw a picture of a rainbow, putting the colors in the same order as you saw in the experiment.

2. Why does light from the sun break into different colors when it travels through a prism or water or a rain shower?

3. In class, you learned that light is a kind of radiation. Name other types of radiation that are related to light (for example, radio waves).