* Start with the top box of the rubric and check each statement that applies to your project. Stop after the first box with a check after every statement. The score to the left of that box is your score for the project. You can go back and revise your poem again to get your desired score.

Dolphins

Dolphins eat fish.

It is their favorite dish.

They use echolocation

To chomp a salty creation.

They sometimes fight sharks,

And give them large marks.

They really are nice.

I don't know if

They eat rice.
