

Communication Activity Sheet

Your Name: _____

Partner's Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer the following questions using full sentences and ideas. Remember that the communication process requires you to express complete thoughts!

1. Were you effective in duplicating your partner's blocks? Why or why not?

--

2. What techniques were required in order to successfully communicate with the receiver? (How should you speak? What information is required?)
--

--

3. Ivan writes an e-mail to Mary and includes directions to a pool party. In this case, who is the sender, and who is the receiver?

--

4. How was this exercise similar to the communication process that a fax machine carries out?

--

5. What other form of technology, besides a fax machine, uses the communication process? Using that technology, how can one ensure that information is sent and carried out effectively?
--

--

Rubric for Student Assessment and Evaluation

Excellent	Fair	Poor
<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Completes all questions using complete ideas. ❖ Demonstrates clear knowledge of the communication process. ❖ Understands that there is an evident relationship between media messages, technology, and communication.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Most questions are completed and contain acceptable responses. ❖ Some relationship is shown between the learning objectives and the communication process. ❖ Some what demonstrates relationship between media messages, technology, and communication.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Questions are incomplete and do not contain complete ideas. ❖ Does not demonstrate knowledge of the communication process. ❖ Shows no relationship between media messages, technology, and communication.