

Role-playing Notes

Skit 1:

Setting - Classroom

Two of the actors are students. The other is a teacher. The teacher pretends to be presenting a lesson. The students are sitting at desks. They do not face the teacher or make eye contact with him/her. They do things like whisper to each other, pass notes, tap pencils, turn around in their seats to look at something behind them, look for things in their desks, etc.

Skit 2:

Setting – Classroom

Two of the actors are students. The other actor is a teacher. The teacher pretends to be presenting a lesson. The students are sitting at desks. They face the teacher, make eye contact with the teacher, do not talk, and do not disturb each other.
