

RUBRIC FOR PENNY PINCHERS ORAL ACTIVITY

EXCELLENT

Student is able to demonstrate a clear knowledge of the concept of money being exchanged for goods and services. Student communicates desires about what he/she wishes to buy and clearly and accurately counts the change needed to buy the object.

GOOD

Student is able to demonstrate an overall understanding of the concept of money being exchanged for goods and services. Student is able to communicate desires about what he or she wishes to buy overall to the class, but may make a minor mistake in counting the sets of pennies.

POOR

Student does not demonstrate any understanding of the concept of money being exchanged for goods and services. Student is unable to communicate his ideas of what he wishes to buy to the class well and is unable to accurately count the set of pennies needed to buy the object.