

Who Dun It?

Student's Name: _____

Checklist:

_____ Student participated in the discussion by relating something that pertained to the central idea of authorities helping with conflict resolution.

_____ Student contributed ideas about positive conflict resolutions in the discussion.

_____ Student wrote a paragraph or several sentences dealing with conflict resolution through the viewpoint of an authority figure.

Scenario for paragraph for students:

Pretend that you are a policeman, a mother or father, or a store manager. Listen to this situation. Write a paragraph describing how you might use positive conflict resolution from that person's viewpoint.

Timmy and Tommy are brothers. One day they were in Walmart on the toy aisle. All of a sudden they got into an argument about a toy and began shouting and pushing each other. If you were their mother or father, what would you do? If you pretend to be a policeman standing in the next aisle, what would you do? If you chose to be the store manager, how would you solve this conflict?

