Student Assignment Sheet

Assignment: You are to create a “personal shield” using the materials which have been provided for you. When you complete this shield, you will share it with your classmates and your teacher. You will receive two grades for this assignment.

Materials
- White poster board
- Shield outline
- Magazines (teen oriented, sports, news)
- Newspapers
- Pencils
- Crayons
- Colored pencils
- Magic markers
- Photographs
- Scissors
- Tape
- Glue
- Pencils

Directions
1. Using your shield outline, trace the shield on to the poster board and then cut it out.
2. Place the graphic items on your shield. You may use art work, photographs, magazine and newspaper clippings to represent six of the eight categories in the following list:
   a. People who are important to you- for example, your family, friends and people you admire.
   b. Places significant to you- places you may have visited or wish to visit, your favorite places such as the beach, mountains, cities, or forests.
   c. Physical features and personality features which identify you, for example- eyes, nose, mouth, hair, clothing style- attitudes that are specifically you such as cheerful, competitive.
   d. Activities/hobbies- any outside school activities such as dancing, collecting, competing, volunteering.
   e. Accomplishments/awards- awards and achievements which you have received.
   f. Short term goals- achieve good grades, make the team, lose weight, buy a car, get a job.
   g. Long term goals- career hopes and dreams for the future.
   h. Favorite things- foods, movies, books, entertainment, music

Evaluation
You will be evaluated for both your poster and your presentation. To receive the highest grade, your poster should represent six of the eight categories, be full of graphics and be neatly done. Your oral presentation should be an informal presentation which lasts at least a minute. You should strive to have good eye contact (look at the audience), and speak loudly enough to be heard.
